

By: Smit Patel | Wed, Oct 21 2026

Key Takeaways:

- Meta beats Q3 top-line and issues strong forward guidance
- Revenue: 64.6 billion vs 63.37 billion
- Top Line increase of 26% YoY

Summary:

For the remained of the year (Q4), Meta expects revenue between 73 and 76 billion. Meta has delivered groundbreaking innovation to its customers this year. The introduction of Muse and Muse Wonder has enabled the company to build its foundation in personal AI agents. The primal success of Muse also enabled the company to have its best trading month in September since 2022.

Meta's acquisition of its AI Chief, Alexander Wang, has been proving to be worth the price. The AI team released Muse Wonder last Monday.